Chapter 1 by Ember Cin Silver

I am Ember, Ember is me, and I am a powerful sorceress. No one knows about me being a sorceress except my sisters and brother. Astrid is one of my sisters. She has hair as black as a raven's wing, peachy skin, hot pink eyes, rose petal colored cheeks, and blood red lips. Astrid's power was to control time. Luna was my other sister and she had chestnut hair, electric blue eyes, tinted pink cheeks, cherry red lips, and peachy skin. Her power was to be able to morph into any object. My brother's name was Percy and he had tanned skin, one blood red eye and a midnight blue one, light gray hair, soft pink lips, but he was able to control the elements. I however have silver, moonlight touched, hair, royal purple eyes, cheeks that are like rose petals, blood red lips, peachy skin. My power is I can do all powers, except I only slow down time and morph into animals or living things. We all were happy until he came. Father came and started hurting my sisters and my brother tried stopping him but he kept on hurting them. That's when I turned into my true form. Sorcerers have a weird way of transforming. They are able to transform into their true form when they feel a strong emotion, whether it was hurt, love, fear, or happiness. I turned because I was scared of what would happen to my sisters. I transformed into an AngelDemon. They were the rarest forms you could get.
